

Tell everyone about your Prowess!

In the days before You tube, Facebook, twitter and Instagram, you had to get yourself talked about by making sure people told stories about you.

Think back to the story of Fergus Mac Leite and his journey to land under wave. He was able to go and find magical items, superhero treasure of every kind.

If you had used the ear herbs, faced the péiste, and got your hands on a magical superhero treasure what would you chose?

Decide on your treasure and draw it.

What would you do with it? (Maybe yourself, today, not in the time of the stories.)

Now get ready to make your boast.

With my _____

I will _____

Now go and challenge someone else to an even bigger and better boast. Whose boast is best? BE DRAMATIC!
